

O'Neal Webster recommended by Legal 500

O'Neal Webster is pleased to announce that the firm has been recommended by Legal 500 in its recent rankings as a leading law firm in the British Virgin Islands.

According to Legal 500, clients of the firm appreciate its "quick responses and efficiently executed work".

Legal 500's full review of the firm is set out below:

"O'Neal Webster - Barristers & Solicitors's partners Kerry Anderson and Vanessa King have significant experience advising major clients on a wide range of BVI corporate and commercial matters. Counsel Christopher Simpson recently joined from Harney Westwood & Riegels. Simpson has been involved in major BVI deals, including one of the first ever court approved corporate arrangements in the BVI. Senior partner and 'experienced advocate' Paul Webster QC has acted in some of the largest commercial litigation cases to pass through the BVI and 'is always willing to make himself available'. Paul Dennis, also a senior partner, is noted for major commercial litigation. The firm recently advised on spinoff litigation matters related to Madoff and Lehman Brothers, and acted for Orsus Solutions on the acquisitions of its business, goodwill and assets by Nice Systems, a company listed on the Nasdaq and Tel Aviv exchanges. Clients appreciate 'quick responses and efficiently executed work'."

Legal 500 is a leading independent legal ranking directory which reviews the strengths and strategies of law firms in over 90 countries in Europe, the Middle East, Asia, North and South America, and the Caribbean.

O'Neal Webster is a leading offshore law firm in the British Virgin Islands providing superior legal services to clients globally. The firm is a member of Lex Mundi, the world's largest association of independent law firms.

November 2010