

Former Deputy High Court Registrar joins O'Neal Webster

O'Neal Webster is pleased to announce that Nadine Whyte has joined our team as an Associate in the firm's Private Client and Litigation Departments.

Prior to joining O'Neal Webster, Nadine acted as judicial assistant to one of the Judges of the High Court of the Eastern Supreme Court in Tortola and subsequently was appointed the Deputy Registrar of the BVI High Court Registry with responsibility for probate and other quasi judicial matters.

Nadine is a graduate of the University of the West Indies and the Norman Manley Law School in Jamaica.

Kerry Anderson, Managing Partner of O'Neal Webster stated:

“We are delighted to have someone with Nadine's expertise and experience on board. Her experience in probate and litigation matters, in particular, and the unique perspective she would have gained in her previous posts will certainly complement and bolster our services in those areas.”
